

116TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

H. R. 8428

To provide for temporary protected status for residents of Hong Kong, and for other purposes.

---

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

SEPTEMBER 29, 2020

Mr. MALINOWSKI (for himself, Mr. KINZINGER, Mr. PHILLIPS, and Mr. TAYLOR) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary, and in addition to the Committee on Foreign Affairs, for a period to be subsequently determined by the Speaker, in each case for consideration of such provisions as fall within the jurisdiction of the committee concerned

A BILL

To provide for temporary protected status for residents of Hong Kong, and for other purposes.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-

2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3       SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “Hong Kong People’s 5       Freedom and Choice Act of 2020”.

6       SEC. 2. DEFINITIONS.

7       For purposes of this Act:

1                             (1) JOINT DECLARATION.—The term “Joint 2     Declaration” means the Joint Declaration of the 3     Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain 4     and Northern Ireland and the Government of the 5     People’s Republic of China on the Question of Hong 6     Kong, signed on December 19, 1984, and entered 7     into force on May 27, 1985.

8                             (2) PRIORITY HONG KONG RESIDENT.—The 9     term “Priority Hong Kong resident” means—

10                             (A) a lawful permanent resident of Hong 11     Kong who—

12                                 (i) holds no right to citizenship in any 13     country or jurisdiction other than the Peo-14     ple’s Republic of China (referred to in this 15     Act as “PRC”), Hong Kong, or Macau as 16     of the date of enactment of this Act;

17                                 (ii) has been verified as a Hong Kong
18     resident by the Secretary of State or Sec-19     retary of Homeland Security in accordance 20     with the procedures described in section 21     6(b) of this Act; and

22                                 (iii) has resided in Hong Kong for not 23     less than the last 10 years; or

24                             (B) is the spouse of a person described in 25     subparagraph (A), or the child of such person

1           as such term is defined in section 101(b)(1) of 2           the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C.
3           1101(b)(1)), except that a child shall be an un-4           married person under twenty-seven years of 5           age.

6           (3) HONG KONG NATIONAL SECURITY LAW.—

7           The term “Hong Kong National Security Law” 8           means the Law of the People’s Republic of China on 9           Safeguarding National Security in the Hong Kong
10          Special Administrative Region that was passed 11          unanimously by the National People’s Congress (re-12          ferred to in this Act as “NPC”) and signed by 13          President Xi Jinping on June 30, 2020, and pro-14          mulgated in the Hong Kong Special Administrative 15          Region (referred to in this Act as “SAR”) on July 16          1, 2020.

17           (4) APPROPRIATE CONGRESSIONAL COMMIT-
18          TEES.—The term “appropriate congressional com-19          mittees” means—

20               (A) the Committee on Foreign Affairs and 21               the Committee on the Judiciary of the House of 22               Representatives; and

23               (B) the Committee on Foreign Relations
24               and the Committee on the Judiciary of the Sen-25               ate.

1   SEC. 3. FINDINGS.

2       Congress finds the following:

3               (1) The Hong Kong National Security Law pro-
4       mulgated on July 1, 2020—

5                       (A) contravenes the Basic Law of the 6       Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (re-7       ferred to in this Act as “the Basic Law”) that 8       provides in Article 23 that the Legislative 9       Council of Hong Kong shall enact legislation re-10      lated to national security;

11                       (B) violates the PRC’s commitments under 12       international law, as defined by the Joint Dec-13      laration; and

14                       (C) causes severe and irreparable damage 15       to the “one country, two systems” principle and 16       further erodes global confidence in the PRC’s 17       commitment to international law.

18               (2) On July 14, 2020, in response to the pro-
19       mulgation of the Hong Kong National Security Law, 20       President Trump signed an Executive order on 21       Hong Kong normalization that, among other policy
22       actions, suspended the special treatment of Hong 23       Kong persons under U.S. law with respect to the 24       issuance of immigrant and nonimmigrant visas.

25               (3) The United States has a long and proud 26       history as a destination for refugees and asylees flee-

1       ing persecution based on race, religion, nationality,
2       political opinion, or membership in a particular so-3       cial group.

4                 (4) The United States also shares deep social, 5       cultural, and economic ties with the people of Hong 6       Kong, including a shared commitment to democracy, 7       to the rule of law, and to the protection of human 8       rights.

9                 (5) The United States has sheltered, protected, 10      and welcomed individuals who have fled authori-
11      tarian regimes, including citizens from the PRC fol-12      lowing the violent June 4, 1989, crackdown in 13      Tiananmen Square, deepening ties between the peo-14      ple of the United States and those individuals seek-15      ing to contribute to a free, open society founded on 16      democracy, human rights, and the respect for the 17      rule of law.

18                 (6) The United States has reaped enormous 19      economic, cultural, and strategic benefits from wel-
20      coming successive generations of scientists, doctors, 21      entrepreneurs, artists, intellectuals, and other free-
22      dom-loving people fleeing fascism, communism, vio-
23      lent Islamist extremism, and other repressive
24      ideologies, including in the cases of Nazi Germany,

1       the Soviet Union, and Soviet-controlled Central Eu-
2       rope, Cuba, Vietnam, and Iran.

3                     (7) A major asymmetric advantage of the 4       United States in its long-term strategic competition 5       with the Communist Party of China is the ability of 6       people from every country in the world, irrespective 7       of their race, ethnicity, or religion, to immigrate to 8       the United States and become American citizens.

9       SEC. 4. STATEMENT OF POLICY.

10      It is the policy of the United States—

11                     (1) to reaffirm the principles and objectives set 12       forth in the United States-Hong Kong Policy Act of 13       1992 (Public Law 102–383), namely that—

14                         (A) the United States has “a strong inter-15       est in the continued vitality, prosperity, and 16       stability of Hong Kong”;

17                         (B) “support for democratization is a fun-
18       damental principle of United States foreign pol-19       icy” and therefore “naturally applies to United 20       States policy toward Hong Kong”;

21                         (C) “the human rights of the people of 22       Hong Kong are of great importance to the 23       United States and are directly relevant to 24       United States interests in Hong Kong and

1           serve as a basis for Hong Kong’s continued eco-2           nomic prosperity”; and

3           (D) Hong Kong must remain sufficiently 4           autonomous from the PRC to “justify treat-5           ment under a particular law of the United 6           States, or any provision thereof, different from 7           that accorded the People’s Republic of China”;

8           (2) to continue to support the high degree of 9           autonomy and fundamental rights and freedoms of 10          the people of Hong Kong, as enumerated by—

11           (A) the Joint Declaration;

12           (B) the International Covenant on Civil 13           and Political Rights, done at New York Decem-14          ber 19, 1966; and

15           (C) the Universal Declaration of Human 16           Rights, done at Paris December 10, 1948;

17           (3) to continue to support the democratic aspi-18           rations of the people of Hong Kong, including the 19           “ultimate aim” of the selection of the Chief Execu-20           tive and all members of the Legislative Council by 21           universal suffrage, as articulated in the Basic Law;

22           (4) to urge the Government of the PRC, despite 23           its recent actions, to uphold its commitments to 24           Hong Kong, including allowing the people of Hong 25          Kong to govern Hong Kong with a high degree of

1 autonomy and without undue interference, and en-
2 suring that Hong Kong voters freely enjoy the right 3 to elect the Chief Executive and all members of the 4 Hong Kong Legislative Council by universal suf-5 frage;

6 (5) to support the establishment of a genuine 7 democratic option to freely and fairly nominate and 8 elect the Chief Executive of Hong Kong, and the es-
9 tablishment of open and direct democratic elections
10 for all members of the Hong Kong Legislative Coun-11 cil;

12 (6) to support the robust exercise by residents
13 of Hong Kong of the rights to free speech, the press, 14 and other fundamental freedoms, as provided by the 15 Basic Law, the Joint Declaration, and the Inter-
16 national Covenant on Civil and Political Rights;

17 (7) to support freedom from arbitrary or unlaw-
18 ful arrest, detention, or imprisonment for all Hong 19 Kong residents, as provided by the Basic Law, the 20 Joint Declaration, and the International Covenant
21 on Civil and Political Rights;

22 (8) to draw international attention to any viola-
23 tions by the Government of the PRC of the funda-
24 mental rights of the people of Hong Kong, as pro-
25 vided by the International Covenant on Civil and Po-

1       litical Rights, and any encroachment upon the au-
2       tonomy guaranteed to Hong Kong by the Basic Law
3       and the Joint Declaration;

4               (9) to protect United States citizens and long-5       term permanent residents living in Hong Kong, as 6       well as people visiting and transiting through Hong
7       Kong;

8               (10) to maintain the economic and cultural ties 9       that provide significant benefits to both the United 10      States and Hong Kong, including the reinstatement 11      of the Fulbright exchange program with regard to 12      Hong Kong at the earliest opportunity;

13               (11) to coordinate with allies, including the 14      United Kingdom, Australia, Canada, Japan, and the 15      Republic of Korea, to promote democracy and 16      human rights in Hong Kong; and 17               (12) to welcome and protect in the United 18      States residents of Hong Kong fleeing persecution or 19      otherwise seeking a safe haven from violations by 20      the Government of the PRC of the fundamental 21      rights of the people of Hong Kong.

22 SEC. 5. TEMPORARY PROTECTED STATUS FOR HONG KONG

23               RESIDENTS IN THE UNITED STATES.

24       (a) DESIGNATION.—

1                         (1) IN GENERAL.—For purposes of section 244
2                         of the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C.
3                         1254a), Hong Kong shall be treated as if it had 4                         been designated under subsection (b)(1)(C) of that 5                         section, subject to the provisions of this section.

6                         (2) PERIOD OF DESIGNATION.—The initial pe-
7                         riod of the designation referred to in paragraph (1) 8                         shall be for the 18-month period beginning on the 9                         date of enactment of this Act.

10                         (b) ALIENS ELIGIBLE.—As a result of the designa-11                         tion made under subsection (a), an alien is deemed to sat-12                         isfy the requirements under paragraph (1) of section 13                         244(c) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C.
14                         1254a(c)), subject to paragraph (3) of such section, if the 15                         alien—

16                         (1) was a lawful permanent resident of Hong 17                         Kong at the time such individual arrived into the 18                         United States and is a national of the PRC;

19                         (2) has been continuously physically present in 20                         the United States since the date of the enactment of 21                         this Act;

22                         (3) is admissible as an immigrant, except as 23                         otherwise provided in paragraph (2)(A) of such sec-24                         tion, and is not ineligible for temporary protected 25                         status under paragraph (2)(B) of such section; and 1                             (4) registers for temporary protected status in 2                             a manner established by the Secretary of Homeland

3                             Security.

4                             (c) CONSENT TO TRAVEL ABROAD.—

5                             (1) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary of Homeland 6                             Security shall give prior consent to travel abroad, in 7                             accordance with section 244(f)(3) of the Immigra-8                             tion and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1254a(f)(3)), to 9                             an alien who is granted temporary protected status 10                            pursuant to the designation made under subsection 11                            (a) if the alien establishes to the satisfaction of the 12                            Secretary of Homeland Security that emergency and 13                            extenuating circumstances beyond the control of the 14                            alien require the alien to depart for a brief, tem-15                            porary trip abroad.

16                            (2) TREATMENT UPON RETURN.—An alien re-17                            turning to the United States in accordance with an 18                            authorization described in paragraph (1) shall be 19                            treated as any other returning alien provided tem-
20                            porary protected status under section 244 of the Im-21                            migration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1254a).

22                            (d) FEE.—

23                            (1) IN GENERAL.—In addition to any other fee
24                            authorized by law, the Secretary of Homeland Secu-25                            rity is authorized to charge and collect a fee of $360

1       for each application for temporary protected status
2       under section 244 of the Immigration and Nation-3       ality Act by a person who is only eligible for such 4       status by reason of subsection (a).

5                 (2) WAIVER.—The Secretary of Homeland Se-6       curity shall permit aliens to apply for a waiver of 7       any fees associated with filing an application re-8       ferred to in paragraph (1).

9 SEC. 6. TREATMENT OF HONG KONG RESIDENTS FOR IMMI-

10                     GRATION PURPOSES.

11                 (a) IN GENERAL.—Notwithstanding any other provi-12 sion of law, during the 5 fiscal year period beginning on 13 the first day of the first full fiscal year after the date of 14 enactment of this Act, Hong Kong shall continue to be 15 considered a foreign state separate and apart from the 16 PRC as mandated under section 103 of the Immigration 17 and Nationality Act of 1990 (Public Law 101–649) for 18 purposes of the numerical limitations on immigrant visas 19 under sections 201, 202, and 203 of the Immigration and 20 Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1151, 1152, and 1153).

21                 (b) PROCEDURES.—

22                 (1) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 180 days
23 after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Sec-24 retary of State, in consultation with the Secretary of 25 Homeland Security, shall publish in the Federal

1 Register, an interim final rule implementing this 2 section. Notwithstanding section 553 of title 5, 3 United States Code, the rule shall be effective, on an 4 interim basis, immediately upon publication, but 5 may be subject to change and revision after public
6 notice and opportunity for comment. The Secretary
7 of State shall finalize such rule not later than 1 year 8 after the date of the enactment of this Act. Such 9 rule shall establish procedures—

10 (A) for individuals to register with any 11 United States embassy or consulate outside of 12 the United States, or with the Department of 13 Homeland Security in the United States, and 14 request designation as a Priority Hong Kong 15 Resident; and

16 (B) for the appropriate Secretary to verify 17 the residency of registered individuals and des-
18 ignate those who qualify as Priority Hong Kong
19 Residents.

20 (2) DOCUMENTATION.—The procedures de-
21 scribed in paragraph (1) shall include the collection 22 of—

23 (A) biometric data;

(B) copies of birth certificates, residency cards, and other documentation establishing residency; and

(3) GUIDANCE.—Not later than 90 days after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Secretary of State shall issue guidance outlining actions to enhance the ability of the Secretary to efficiently send and receive information to and from the United Kingdom and other like-minded allies and partners for purposes of rapid verification of lawful permanent residency in Hong Kong and designation of individuals as Priority Hong Kong Residents.

22 (c) PROTECTION FOR REFUGEES.—Nothing in this 23 section shall be construed to prevent a Priority Hong 24 Kong Resident from seeking refugee status under section
25 207 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C.

1 1107) or requesting asylum under section 208 of such Act
2 (8 U.S.C. 1108).

3 SEC. 7. REPORTING REQUIREMENTS.

4 (a) IN GENERAL.—On an annual basis, the Secretary
5 of State and the Secretary of Homeland Security, in con-6 sultation with other Federal agencies, as appropriate, shall 7 submit a report to the appropriate congressional commit-8 tees, detailing for the previous fiscal year—

9 (1) the number of Hong Kong SAR residents
10 who have applied for U.S. visas or immigration ben-11 efits, disaggregated by visa type or immigration ben-12 efit, including asylum, refugee status, temporary 13 protected status, and lawful permanent residence;

14 (2) the number of approvals, denials, or rejec-
15 tions of applicants for visas or immigration benefits
16 described in paragraph (1), disaggregated by visa
17 type or immigration benefit and basis for denial;

18 (3) the number of pending refugee and asylum 19 applications for Hong Kong SAR residents, and the 20 length of time and reason for which such applica-21 tions have been pending; and

22 (4) other matters deemed relevant by the Secre-23 taries relating to efforts to protect and facilitate the 24 resettlement of refugees and victims of persecution
25 in Hong Kong.

1       (b) FORM.—Each report under subsection (a) shall 2 be submitted in unclassified form and published on a text-
3 searchable, publicly available website of the Department
4 of State and the Department of Homeland Security.

5 SEC. 8. STRATEGY FOR INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION ON 6 HONG KONG.

7       (a) IN GENERAL.—It is the policy of the United 8 States—

9                         (1) to support the people of Hong Kong by pro-10                         viding safe haven to Hong Kong SAR residents who 11                         are nationals of the PRC following the enactment of 12                         the Hong Kong National Security Law that places
13                         certain Hong Kong persons at risk of persecution; 14                         and

15                   (2) to encourage like-minded nations to make 16 similar accommodations for Hong Kong people flee-
17 ing persecution by the Government of the PRC.

18       (b) PLAN.—The Secretary of State, in consultation
19 with the heads of other Federal agencies, as appropriate, 20 shall develop a plan to engage with other nations, includ-21 ing the United Kingdom, on cooperative efforts to—

22 (1) provide refugee and asylum protections for 23 victims of, and individuals with a fear of, persecu-
24 tion in Hong Kong, either by Hong Kong authorities
25 or other authorities acting on behalf of the PRC;

1                   (2) enhance protocols to facilitate the resettlement
2                   of refugees and displaced persons from Hong
3                   Kong;

4                   (3) identify and prevent the exploitation of immigration and visa policies and procedures by corrupt officials; and

7                   (4) expedite the sharing of information, as appropriate, related to the refusal of individual applications for visas or other travel documents submitted by residents of the Hong Kong SAR based 8                   on—

12                  (A) national security or related grounds 13                  under section 212(a)(3) of the Immigration and 14                  Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1182(a)(3)); or 15                  (B) fraud or misrepresentation under section 212(a)(6)(C) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1182(a)(6)(C)).

18                  (c) REPORT.—Not later than 90 days after the date 19                  of the enactment of this Act, the Secretary of State, in 20                  consultation with the heads of other Federal agencies, as 21                  appropriate, shall submit a report on the plan described 22                  in subsection (b) to the appropriate congressional committees.

1   SEC. 9. REFUGEE STATUS FOR CERTAIN RESIDENTS OF 2                   HONG KONG.

3         (a) IN GENERAL.—Aliens described in subsection (b)
4         may establish, for purposes of admission as a refugee 5         under sections 207 of the Immigration and Nationality 6         Act (8 U.S.C. 1157) or asylum under section 208 of such 7         Act (8 U.S.C. 1158), that such alien has a well-founded 8         fear of persecution on account of race, religion, nation-9         ality, membership in a particular social group, or political 10       opinion by asserting such a fear and a credible basis for 11       concern about the possibility of such persecution.

12         (b) ALIENS DESCRIBED.—

13                 (1) IN GENERAL.—An alien is described in this 14                 subsection if such alien—

15                         (A) is a Priority Hong Kong Resident 16                         and—

17                                 (i) had a significant role in a civil so-18                                 ciety organization supportive of the pro-19                                 tests in 2019 and 2020 related to the 20                                 Hong Kong National Security Law and the 21                                 encroachment on the autonomy of Hong 22                                 Kong by the PRC; or

23                                 (ii) was arrested, charged, detained, 24                                 or convicted of an offense arising from 25                                 their participation in an action as de-26                                 scribed in section 206(b)(2) of the United

1                   States-Hong Kong Policy Act of 1992 (22
2                   U.S.C. 5726) that was not violent in na-
3                   ture;

4                   (B) is a Priority Hong Kong Resident
5                   spouse or child of an alien described in sub-6                   paragraph (A);

7                   (C) is the parent of an alien described in 8                   subparagraph (A), if such parent is a citizen of 9                   the PRC and no other foreign state; or 10                  (D) has had their citizenship, nationality, 11                  or residency revoked for having submitted to 12                  any United States Government agency a non-13                  frivolous application for refugee status, asylum, 14                  or any other immigration benefit under the im-15                  migration laws (as defined in section 101(a) of 16                  that Act (8 U.S.C. 1101(a))).

17                  (2) OTHER CATEGORIES.—The Secretary of 18                  Homeland Security, in consultation with the Sec-19                  retary of State, may designate other categories of 20                  aliens for purposes of establishing a well-founded 21                  fear of persecution under subsection (a) if such 22                  aliens share common characteristics that identify 23                  them as targets of persecution in the PRC on ac-24                  count of race, religion, nationality, membership in a 25                  particular social group, or political opinion.

1                                 (3) SIGNIFICANT ROLE.—For purposes of 2 clause (i) of subsection (b)(1)(A), a significant role 3 shall include, with respect to the protests described 4 in such clause—
5                                     (A) an organizing role;
6                                     (B) a first aid responder;
7                                     (C) a journalist or member of the media 8 covering or offering public commentary;
9                                     (D) a provider of legal services to one or 10 more individuals arrested for participating in 11 such protests; or 12                                     (E) a participant who during the period
13 beginning on June 9, 2019, and ending on June 14 30, 2020, was arrested, charged, detained, or 15 convicted as a result of such participation.

16                                 (c) AGE OUT PROTECTIONS.—For purposes of this 17 section, a determination of whether an alien is a child shall 18 be made using the age of the alien on the date on which 19 the alien files an application for refugee or asylum status
20 with the Secretary of Homeland Security.

21                                 (d) EXCLUSION FROM NUMERICAL LIMITATIONS.—
22 Aliens provided refugee status under this section shall not 23 be counted against the numerical limitation on refugees 24 established in accordance with the procedures described in

1 section 207 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (8
2 U.S.C. 1157).

3 (e) REPORTING REQUIREMENTS.—

4 (1) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 90 days after 5 the date of the enactment of this Act, and every 90
6 days thereafter, the Secretary of State and the Sec-
7 retary of Homeland Security shall submit a report 8 on the matters described in paragraph (2) to—

9 (A) the Committee on the Judiciary and 10 the Committee on Foreign Relations of the Sen-11 ate; and

12 (B) the Committee on the Judiciary and 13 the Committee on Foreign Affairs of the House
14 of Representatives.

15 (2) MATTERS TO BE INCLUDED.—Each report
16 required by paragraph (1) shall include—

17 (A) the total number of refugee and asy-18 lum applications that are pending at the end of 19 the reporting period;

20 (B) the average wait-times for all appli-
21 cants for refugee status or asylum pending—

22 (i) a prescreening interview with a re-
23 settlement support center;

24 (ii) an interview with U.S. Citizenship
25 and Immigration Services; and

1 (iii) the completion of security checks;

2 (C) the number of approvals, referrals in-3 cluding the source of the referral, denials of ap-4 plications for refugee status or asylum,
5 disaggregated by the reason for each such de-6 nial; and

(D) the number of refugee circuit rides to interview populations that would include Hong Kong SAR completed in the last 90 days, and the number planned for the subsequent 90-day period.

12                             (3) FORM.—Each report required by paragraph 13                             (1) shall be submitted in unclassified form, but may 14                             include a classified annex.

15                             (4) PUBLIC REPORTS.—The Secretary of State 16       shall make each report submitted under this sub-17       section available to the public on the internet website
18       of the Department of State.

19 SEC. 10. STATEMENT OF POLICY ON ENCOURAGING ALLIES
20 AND PARTNERS TO MAKE SIMILAR ACCOM-
21 MODATIONS.

22 It is the policy of the United States to encourage al-
23 lies and partners of the United States to make accom-
24 modations similar to the accommodations made in this Act
25 for residents of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Re-

1 gion who are fleeing oppression by the Government of the 2 People's Republic of China.

3 SEC. 11. TERMINATION.

4 Except as provided in section 6 of this Act, this Act 5 shall cease to have effect on the date that is 5 years after 6 the date of the enactment of this Act.
